If you would like to secure your reservation with Lumen, send an email to groepen@lumenzwolle.nl with the subject: Booking Inchainge Connect.

Since the conference takes place during a holiday week and happens shortly after King's Day, room availability will be very limited around that time, so we urge you not to wait with making your reservations. Free cancellation is possible up to 2 days before arrival.

Please note that you are free to book your own hotel if you do not wish to stay at either of the ones above, however we will only provide free bus service to and from the event from Hotel Lumen. If you wish to arrive by car, there is free parking arranged for our guests.
